

Hall To Stay On As Director National Reconnaissance Office

January 22, 2001

Mr. Keith Hall agreed to stay on as Director of the National Reconnaissance Office and Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Space after being asked to do so by the Bush administration. Hall has served in this position since 1997. As DNRO, Hall is responsible for the acquisition and operation of all United States space-based reconnaissance and intelligence systems. In his ASAF (Space) role he is responsible for the overall supervision of Air Force space matters, with primary emphasis on policy, strategy, and planning.
